And should two-thirds of the members present vote in the affirmative, the proposition shall be declared adopted; otherwise, the Master shall declare the same rejected, and order the Recorder to record the result and report the same to the other Council; Provided, no such proposition shall be declared adopted if as many as nine members of the Council proposing to give up its name and Charter, vote against said proposition. Should said proposition be adopted, as above, by the Councils parties to such consolidation, then the Charter of the Council agreeing to surrender its name and Charter, shall be forwarded to the Grand Recorder to be canceled, and the members of such Council shall be and become members of the Council whose name and Charter are assumed, as fully as though they had regularly petitioned and been elected members thereof. The books, property and furniture, moneys on hand and due, or to become due to the Council so surrendering its Charter, shall be and become the property of the Council whose name, number and Charter have been assumed; and said last mentioned Council shall be and become liable for all the debts of said Council so consolidated with it.

SEC. 66. Status of Members of Extinct Councils. When the Charter of a Council shall have been surrendered or arrested, the members thereof in good standing shall, upon payment to the Grand Council of such dues, if any, as may be owing to such Council, and a fee of fifty cents to the Grand Recorder, be entitled to a certificate of such good standing from the Grand Recorder having charge of the books and effects of the Council; Provided, however, that in case of the arrest of the SEC. 67. Charter Rights Forfeited. A Council failing to meet for twelve consecutive months forfeits all its rights as a Council, and labor cannot be resumed unless by authority of the Grand Master or Grand Council.

SEC. 68. Annual Returns. The returns of each Council shall be made up to, and including December 31st of each year, on blanks furnished by the Grand Recorder. They shall be forwarded to the Grand Recorder during the month of January of each year.

SEC. 70. Members of Extinct Council. When a Council has ceased to exist, any member thereof may join another Council upon petition and certificate from the Grand Recorder that his standing therein was good when said Council ceased to exist, and that all dues or other liabilities have been paid.

SEC. 74. Sunday. No Assembly shall be held on the first day of the week, commonly called Sunday.

SEC. 75. Notice. Whenever it shall be necessary to give notice to resident members of a Council of any matter to be acted on by such Council, the Recorder shall issue a notice, stating the subject to be considered by the Council and when to be acted upon, and notifying the members to be present; he shall, at least ten days before such action is to be taken, deposit in the post-office a copy of such notice, sealed, addressed to each member of said Council residing in the territorial jurisdiction of such Council; or he shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, a copy of such notice to each of said members, at least ten days before such action is to be taken, and shall make return, in writing, on said notice, of the service thereof, which notice and return shall be spread upon the records, and which said return shall be in the following form:

in person to the party named in the summons. The summons should be returned on or before the return day, with an endorsement of the time of service, or a statement of reasons for a failure to serve.

SEC. 79. Summons Must Be Obeyed. Every Royal and Select Master is bound to obey a summons; and for failure without good and sufficient cause, may be notified to appear before his Council at its next meeting; and if a satisfactory excuse be not rendered, charges shall be preferred against him, and upon trial, he may be punished as the Council may determine.

SEC. 80. Summons. The Thrice Illustrious Master, or the Council, has the right to summon any member of the Council for any purpose within the scope and business of Cryptic Masonry, and every Select Master is bound to obey such summons, unless unavoidably prevented. This great power should only be exercised in cases of extreme emergency. While it is left to the wise discretion of the Thrice Illustrious Master, or Council, as to when such an emergency exists, the Thrice Illustrious Master, or Council, must be held to accountability for an arbitrary exercise of this discretion, as for any other willful abuse of official authority.

SEC. 86. Vacancy in Office. If a vacancy occurs in any elective office, other than that of Thrice Illustrious Master, the Grand Master may authorize a new election, upon request to that effect by the Council; Provided however, in case of a vacancy in both the offices of Thrice Illustrious Master and Deputy Master, the Principal Conductor of the Work shall succeed to the duties and powers of the Thrice Illustrious Master without an election.

SEC. 87. Vacancy in Appointive Offices. When a vacancy occurs in one of the appointive offices, the presiding officer shall, by appointment, fill the vacancy.

SEC. 91. Failure to Elect Officers. Should any Council fail to elect its Officers at the time prescribed by its By-laws, it shall forthwith lay the matter before the Grand Master, who, for good cause shown, may grant a Dispensation to hold an election as soon thereafter as may be practicable; and resident members shall be duly notified of the time set for such election. Such Dispensation shall be entered at length upon the records of the Council.

SEC. 92. The Thrice Illustrious Master. The Thrice Illustrious Master has it in special charge to see that the By-laws of his Council are duly observed, as well as the Statutes, Rules and Regulations of the Grand Council; that accurate records are made, and just accounts rendered; that regular returns are made to the Grand Council, and that the annual dues are promptly paid. It is his duty to preside at all Assemblies of his Council, and he is responsible for the proper conduct of its affairs. It is his duty, either in person or by proxy, to attend all Assemblies of the Grand Council, and to see that the Recorder of his Council promptly discharges his duty in reference to Council returns and dues.

SEC. 93. Other Officers. The duties of the remaining Officers are such as are traditionally appropriate to their respective stations, or as may be specifically set forth in regulations to that effect.

SEC. 94. Eligibility to Office. Every member in good standing is eligible to any office in the Council.

ARTICLE VIII.

SEC. 96. Must be Signed. No petition can be received, unless signed by the applicant in person, giving his full name, age, residence and occupation.

SEC. 97. To be Recommended. Each petition must be signed by two recommenders who are members of the Council to which the petition is presented.

SEC. 98. Application for Degrees. All applications for the Degrees in a Subordinate Council shall be made to the Council in the town or city where the applicant resides, if there be a Council therein; but if there be no Council, such application may be made to any Council in this jurisdiction.

SEC. 99. Must be Referred. No ballot can be had upon a petition until after it has been referred to a Committee of three members of the Council and that Committee has reported.

SEC. 100. Cannot be Withdrawn. When a petition has been presented to a Council, it cannot be withdrawn unless it shall appear that the Council has not jurisdiction over the petitioner.

SEC. 101. Report not to be Recorded. The fact of the report being made, and not its character (whether favorable or unfavorable), should be entered on the minutes.

SEC. 102. Unfavorable Report. An unfavorable report does not dispense with the necessity of a ballot, which must be taken in all cases.

SEC. 103. When to be Received. Petitions can be received or acted upon only at stated Assemblies, unless by written permission of the Grand Master.

SEC. 104. When may be Renewed. The petition of one who has been rejected cannot be renewed until the expiration of at least six months after such rejection.

SEC. 105. Where. It may then be received by the Council in whose jurisdiction the petitioner then resides.

SEC. 106. Must Be Secret. The ballot upon a petition for the Degrees or for membership must be secret.

SEC. 107. All must Vote. Every member present when a ballot is taken is required to vote, unless excused by the Thrice Illustrious Master before the balloting has commenced.

SEC. 108. Examination of Ballot. After the ballot on a petition for the Degrees has been taken and examined, according to custom, the result shall be declared by the Thrice Illustrious Master, unless only one negative vote appears, in which case he shall order the second trial of the ballot, which shall, in all cases, be final; Provided, that the Grand Master may in his discretion, and for good cause, grant a Dispensation authorizing another ballot at a stated meeting of the Council, to be by him designated; of which ballot all the resident members shall have notice. The same course of proceeding shall be had on ballot for affiliation, except that two negative votes shall be required to reject.

SEC. 109. Objection. A member of a Council in good standing, whether present when the ballot was taken or not, may object to the conferring of the Degree of Royal Master upon an elected candidate, and cannot be required to disclose his reasons therefor; if he voluntarily discloses them he does not thereby deprive himself of his individual right. When such objection is made, either in person or in writing in open Council, the Degree of Royal Master cannot be conferred; and the fact of objection and not the name of the objector shall be entered on the minutes, and shall be equivalent to a rejection by ballot.

SEC. 110. Same. No member of a Council, whether present when the ballot was taken or not, shall prevent or delay the conferring of the Degree of Select Master upon any Companion Royal Master by a mere objection; but every candidate once elected to receive the Degrees in any Council, and who shall have been duly advanced to the rights and honors of a Royal Master, shall be entitled to the Degree of Select Master, unless found unworthy after trial on charges duly presented.

SEC. 111. Same. The objector, in order to prevent or delay the conferring of the Degree of Select Master on any such elected candidate who shall have been admitted a Royal Master, shall be required to prefer written charges against him, or give notice that he will do so within one month, and such objection or charges shall be filed with the Recorder of the Council, but should such objector fail to prefer charges within the specified time the candidate shall be entitled to advancement. The said candidate shall be entitled to receive a copy of the charges so presented, and to be heard by counsel—the counsel being a Companion Select Master—in his defense at an open trial, during which trial the Council shall be open and at labor on the degree of Royal Master, but must close on that degree and open (or resume labor) on the degree of Select Master to vote on the sufficiency of the charge and specifications.

SEC. 112. Same. Charges against an elected candidate may be received from a visiting Companion, but shall not be considered by the Council except by a majority vote to that effect, or where, in consequence thereof, objection shall be made or charges presented by a member of the Council, and in the manner hereinbefore stated.

SEC. 113. Same. The charges against a Companion Royal Master may be withdrawn by consent of the Council before the commencement of the hearing thereon.

SEC. 116. Remission of Dues cannot be Reconsidered. A Council having, upon proper motion, remitted the dues of a member, no reconsideration at a subsequent meeting is admissible. If imposition has been practiced in obtaining the remission of dues, the Companion guilty of the imposition should be disciplined.

Whenever a member shall fail to pay his dues at the time when the same become due and payable, as fixed by the By-laws of the Council, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to notify him of such delinquency by delivering to him, in person, a bill for such indebtedness, or by mailing the same in a sealed envelope, addressed to him at his present or last known place of residence; should the delinquent refuse or fail to pay his dues within twenty days after the issuance of such notice, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to notify the Master of such failure, who shall at the next stated Assembly of the Council order a notice to be given the delinquent by the Recorder, requiring him to appear at a specified subsequent stated Assembly, to show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues, which notice shall be in the following form:

Such notice shall be served by the Recorder by delivering, or causing to be delivered by a Companion, to the delinquent, a copy of the same, ten days before the Assembly at which he is to appear; but should his residence be more than five miles from the place of the Council meeting, or be unknown, then a notice forwarded to his last known place of residence, twenty days before the date at which he is required to appear shall be sufficient.

Should the delinquent fail to appear, his dues remain unpaid, or the same not be remitted for good cause, or the time of payment extended by a majority vote of the members present, the Thrice Illustrious Master, upon proof of notice and the fact of arrearages, shall put the question: "Shall Companion be suspended for non-payment of dues?" Which shall be determined by a paper ballot, and if the majority of those present vote "yes," the Thrice Illustrious Master shall declare the Companion suspended until his dues are paid.

Payment of dues before the ballot is taken shall stop proceedings, and after suspension, shall reinstate the Companion. If paid after suspension, the Recorder shall report the same to the Council, and the fact of such payment shall be noted in the proceedings of the Council.

No Companion who shall remain in arrears three years after his suspension shall be reinstated by the payment of his dues except by a vote of a majority of the members of the Council present at the time of his application being acted upon.

SEC. 121. Suspended may Renew. A Companion who has stood suspended for non-payment of dues for three years or more, and whose application for reinstatement has been rejected, may renew his application at any subsequent meeting of the Council.

SEC. 178. Punishment. If the verdict be "guilty," on either or all of the specifications, the Council must impose the punishment, either by expulsion, or by suspension for a stated time, to be determined by a majority vote, by ballot, or by reprimand as hereinafter stated. The Thrice Illustrious Master or presiding officer shall put the question first on expulsion. If a majority present vote for expulsion, then the accused shall stand expelled; but if less than a majority present vote for expulsion, then the question shall be on suspension; if a majority present vote for suspension, then the time shall

CEREMONIES.

INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF THE GRAND COUNCIL.

At the time appointed for the installation, the chair must be taken by the Most Illustrious Grand Master, or, in his absence, some Past Grand Master present, who will appoint some suitable Companion to act as Grand Marshal for the occasion. The Grand Marshal then introduces the Grand Master elect to the Installing Officer, saying—

MOST ILLUSTRIOUS: I here present for installation, Companion ———— who, has been duly elected Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Missouri.

The Installing Officer then administers to him the following obligation, all the companions standing:—

I, ————, do solemnly promise that I will serve as Most Illustrious Grand Master of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Missouri, for the term for which I have been elected, and will perform all the duties appertaining to that office to the best of my ability, and that I will support and maintain the Constitution and Laws of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Missouri.

The Installing Officer will then deliver the following

CHARGE.

MOST ILLUSTRIOUS: By the voice of your companions you have been chosen to occupy the most honorable office in their power to bestow, and to me has been entrusted the pleasing duty of investing you with its insignia.

The Installing Officer will then cause the Grand Master to be invested with the insignia of his office, after which he will continue as follows:—

I do not doubt that you will watch with fidelity and judgment the conduct of the subordinate bodies within your jurisdiction; and while tempering justice with mercy will require from every member a due obedience to the rules and regulations of our institution. May He, without whose approbation all our labors are in vain, give strength to your endeavors and support to your exertions.

You will now assume your appropriate station.

The other officers, elected and appointed, are then presented in a body to the Installing Officer, who administers to them the following obligation:—

I (each speaking his name), do solemnly promise that I will faithfully perform all the duties of the office to which I have been chosen, to the best of my ability, and that I will support and maintain the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Missouri.

Each officer, as soon as he is installed, will assume his appropriate station in the Grand Council.

CHARGE TO THE DEPUTY GRAND MASTER.

RIGHT ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: The important station to which you have been elected requires from you exemplary conduct, and its duties demand your most assiduous attention. In the absence of the Most Illustrious Grand Master you are to preside; in his presence you are to strengthen and support his authority by your counsel and advice.

Let the bright example of the illustrious monarch of Tyre, who, by his power and wealth, gave strength to the labors of King Solomon, stimulate you to the faithful discharge of your duties; and when the King of kings shall summon you to his immediate presence from His hands may you receive a crown of glory that shall never fade.

CHARGE OF THE GRAND PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR OF THE WORK.

RIGHT ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: The office to which you have been elected is one of great importance. In the absence of your superior officers it is your prerogative to succeed them, and to perform their duties; you will therefore perceive the necessity there is of your possessing such qualifications as will enable you to accomplish those duties which are incumbent upon you in your appropriate station, as well as those which may occasionally devolve upon you by the absence of your superiors.

Remember the example of that illustrious artist at Jerusalem, who was ever ready, as a mediator, to cause justice to be tempered with mercy, and to preserve peace and order among the Craft. Let it remind you that the harmony and unanimity of the Order should be your constant aim; and as the glorious sun at its meridian height dispels the mists and clouds which obscure the horizon, so may your exertions tend to dissipate the clouds of jealousy and discord whensoever they may appear.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND TREASURER.

RIGHT ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been elected to the responsible office of Grand Treasurer, and I now invest you with the badge of your office.

It is your duty to receive all moneys from the hands of the Grand Recorder, make due entries of the same, and pay them out by order of the Most Illustrious Grand Master, with the consent and approbation of the Grand Council. The office to which you have been elected embraces an important trust, and the choice of you by your Companions is an evidence of the high opinion they entertain of your fidelity and discretion.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND RECORDER.

RIGHT ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been elected to the important office of Grand Recorder, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office.

It is your duty to receive all moneys due the Grand Council and pay them over to the Grand Treasurer, taking his receipt for the same; to observe the proceedings of the Grand Council, and to make a true record of all things proper to be written. You are also the official organ of the Grand Council, and in that capacity will conduct its various correspondence, and act as the medium of intercourse between the fraternity and their presiding officer. In the discharge of these extensive duties, let your carriage and behavior be marked with that promptitude and discretion that will at once reflect credit on yourself and honor on the body whom you represent.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND CAPTAIN OF THE GUARD.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been chosen Grand Captain of the Guard, and I invest you with the jewel of your office. Guard well your post, and suffer none to pass it but the select, the faithful and the worthy. Be ever attentive to the commands of your Chief and prompt to see them duly executed. I present you with this sword as the appropriate implement of your office.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND CONDUCTOR OF THE COUNCIL.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been chosen Grand Conductor of the Council, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office.

Be fervent and zealous in the discharge of your duties; let justice and mercy mark your conduct, and predominate in your character through life.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND CHAPLAIN.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: The position of Grand Chaplain has been intrusted to your care, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office.

In the discharge of your duties you will be required to lead the devotional exercises of our annual assemblies, and to perform the sacred functions of your holy calling at our public ceremonies. I do not doubt that you will discharge the duties of your present appointment with steadfastness and perseverance in well doing.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND MARSHAL.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been chosen Grand Marshal, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office, and present you with this baton, as the ensign of your authority.

It is your duty to arrange all the processions of the Grand Council, and to preserve order according to the forms prescribed. Skill and precision are essentially necessary to the faithful discharge of these duties.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND STEWARD.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been chosen Grand Steward of the Grand Council, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office.

In the discharge of your duties, your station is near the door, where you will receive all reports from the Grand Sentinel, and announce the name and Masonic rank of all who desire admission. You will see that none enter except such as are duly qualified.

CHARGE TO THE GRAND SENTINEL.

COMPANION: You have been appointed Grand Sentinel, and I now invest you with the jewel of your office, and place this sword in your hands, the more effectually to enable you to repel the approach of intruders, and to guard against surprise.

It is your duty to guard the door of the Grand Council, on the outside; to report to the Grand Steward those who desire to be admitted; to place the council chamber in order for assemblies, and to attend to such other duties as may be required of you by the Grand Council. Your early and punctual attendance is essentially necessary.

The Acting Grand Marshal then makes proclamation as follows:

By authority of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Missouri, I proclaim that the Grand Officers have been installed in ample form.

This concludes the ceremony of Installation of the Officers of the Grand Council.

INSTITUTING A COUNCIL UNDER DISPENSATION.

The time having arrived for the ceremony, the Most Ill. Grand Master, or his duly appointed Deputy, (who must be a Past Thrice Ill. Master) assumes the chair, and fills the stations with proper officers, opens the council in the degree of Select Master, and reads the letter of Dispensation.

He then causes the three principal officers named in the Dispensation to assume their stations, and delivers to them and the other officers appropriate charges and instructions. The subordinate officers U. D. are appointed by the Thrice Ill. Master. Officers of Councils U. D. are not installed.

The following is the form to be used when officers of a Council U. D. are assigned to their stations.

CHARGE TO THE THRICE ILL. MASTER.

THRICE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER: The superintendence and government of the Companions who are to compose this Council while under Dispensation having been committed to your care, you cannot be insensible of the obligations which devolve on you as their head; nor of your responsibility for the faithful discharge of the important duties appertaining to your appointment. Conduct the affairs of the Council wisely and well, so that the Grand Council may approve your work, and perpetuate your organization by granting you a Charter in due time.

THE DEPUTY MASTER.

COMPANION ———: You have been appointed Deputy Master of this Council while under Dispensation, and will now assume the duties of your station. It will be your duty to aid and support your Chief in all the requirements of his office. In his absence you are to preside and perform his duties.

THE PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR OF THE WORK.

COMPANION ———: You have been appointed Principal Conductor of the work of this Council while under dispensation and will now assume the duties of your station. In the absence of both of your superior officers, it will be your duty to preside over the Council.

THE TREASURER.

COMPANION ———, having been appointed Treasurer of this Council, you will now enter upon the discharge of your duties. These you will perform with fidelity and care, thus proving your devotion to our Order.

THE RECORDER.

COMPANION ———, you have been appointed Recorder of this Council, and are now assigned to your office. Your duties are important, requiring promptness, accuracy and fidelity. Let your record and your conduct command the approval and merit the confidence of your Companions.

THE CAPTAIN OF THE GUARD.

COMPANION ———, you have been appointed Captain of the Guard, and will now assume the duties of your station. Guard well your post, and suffer none to pass it but the select, the worthy and faithful. Be ever attentive to the commands of Chief, and prompt to see them duly executed.

THE CONDUCTOR OF THE COUNCIL.

COMPANION ———, you have been appointed Conductor of the Council, and will now assume the duties of your station. Be fervent and zealous in the discharge of your duties; let justice and mercy mark your conduct, and predominate in your character through life.

THE STEWARD.

COMPANION ———, you have been appointed Steward of this Council, and will now assume the duties of your station. You will see that none enter except such as are duly qualified.

THE SENTINEL.

COMPANION ———, you have been appointed Sentinel of this Council, and will now assume the duties of your station. Be attentive, vigilant and faithful.

The presiding officer may conclude with such personal instructions and advice as he deems proper, and then he proclaims the Council duly instituted and regularly at work, as follows:

In the name and by the authority of the Most Ill. Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Missouri, I declare this Council duly instituted under Dispensation, and regularly at work, with the Officers in their proper station.

Handing the Thrice Ill. Master the Dispensation and the gavel, he takes his seat beside the Master, and the Council proceeds with its regular business.

CONSTITUTING A COUNCIL UNDER CHARTER.

The Grand Master or his duly appointed proxy assumes the chair and fills the various stations with suitable companions who may be present, and opens the Council on the degree of Select Master. He then explains the object of the assembly and causes to be read the Charter under which the new Council is to be constituted. An ode may be sung or appropriate music rendered. Then the Chaplain shall offer the following or some other suitable prayer:

Most holy and glorious Lord God, the Grand Architect of the Universe, thou who governest the world in the secrecy and silence of thine omniscient counsels, and who showest mercy unto all who trust in thy holy and ineffable name; we invoke thy benediction upon the purposes of our present assembly. May this Council be established to thy honor, and consecrated to thy glory; may its officers be endowed with wisdom to discern and fidelity to pursue its true interests, and may its members, remembering that they have been chosen as a select band to preserve for the Craft that Divine Truth which is the Foundation Stone of all Masonry, be ever mindful of the duty which they owe to thee, the Eternal Builder, the obedience they owe their superiors, the love they owe to their equals, and the good-will they owe to all mankind. Amen.

Response. So mote it be.

The constituting officer then causes the members of the new Council to be formed in line West of the Altar, facing the East. He then rises and constitutes the new Council in the following form, all the Companions standing:

In the name and by the authority of the Most Ill. Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Missouri, I do now form and constitute you my worthy Companions, into a regular Council of Royal and Select Masters by the name of _____ Council No. _____; Henceforth you and your successors are authorized and empowered to open and hold said Council, and to do and perform all such things as may appertain thereunto; conforming in all your doings to the Constitution, By-Laws and General Regulations of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Missouri, and may the God of our fathers be with you to guide and direct you in all your doings. Amen.

Response: So mote it be.

The following Dedicatory Declaration shall then be pronounced by the Grand Master.

To our Ancient and Most Illustrious Grand Master Solomon, King of Israel, we solemnly dedicate this Council; May the blessing of Him who presides in the Grand Council above, descend and rest upon its members and may He so direct their labors that His name may be magnified, now and forever. Amen.

Response: So mote it be.

(These ceremonies may be interspersed with suitable music.) The Constituting officer then causes an election to be held for the officers of the New Council. He then appoints some suitable Companion to act as Marshal and preceeds to install the newly elected and appointed officers.

An oration may here be delivered or appropriate addresses may be made by the Grand Master and other Companions.

The new Council will now proceed with its regular business, and after all business is transacted the Council should be closed in due form.

INSTALLATION OF THE OFFICERS OF A CHARTERED COUNCIL.

At the time appointed for the Installation, the Council being open in the degree of Select Master, the Thrice Illustrious Master (or a Past Master acting), will appoint some suitable companion to act as Marshal. The Marshal will then present the Thrice Illustrious Master-elect to the Installing Officer, saying—

THRICE ILLUSTRIOUS: I here present for installation, Companion ———, who has been duly elected to serve this Council as Thrice Illustrious Master for the ensuing year.

The Installing Officer then addresses him as follows—

COMPANION ———: I feel much satisfaction in installing you into the office of Thrice Illustrious Master of this Council. It is a station highly honorable to all those who diligently perform the important duties connected therewith. But before investing you with the appropriate insignia of your office, I shall propose certain questions, to which I must require your unequivocal answers:—

1. Do you solemnly promise that you will use your utmost endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals and promote the happiness of your companions?

2. That you will never suffer your Council to be opened unless there be present nine Select Masters?

3. That you will not suffer any person to pass the circle in your Council in whose integrity, fervency and zeal you have not entire confidence?

4. That you will not acknowledge or hold intercourse with any Council that does not work under some regular and constitutional authority?

5. That you will admit no visitor into your Council who has not been regularly and lawfully invested with the Council degrees?

6. That you will faithfully observe the By-Laws of your Council, and the Constitution and general regulations of the Grand Council?

7. That in the government of your Council you will administer justice tempered with mercy?

8. That you will pay due respect and obedience to the Grand Officers when duly installed, and sustain them in the discharge of their duties?

Do you submit to all these requirements, and do you promise to observe them faithfully?

Thrice Illustrious Master-elect answers in the affirmative.

INSTALLING OFFICER.—Your answer is satisfactory; but before proceeding further in your installation, it is necessary that I should administer to you the obligation of office.

The Installing Officer then administers the following obligation.

I —— ——— do solemnly promise that I will serve as Thrice Illustrious Master of this Council for the term for which I have been elected, and that I will perform all the duties appertaining to that office to the best of my ability.

CHARGE TO THE THRICE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER.

THRICE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER: With entire confidence in the rectitude of your intentions, and in the integrity of your character as a Select Master, you are now invested with the appropriate badge of your office.

Having been elevated by the voice of your Companions to the highest station in their gift, you are now to assume the functions of that office. It is your duty to set an example of diligence, industry and fidelity; to see that the officers associated with you faithfully perform their respective duties; and that the interests and reputation of your Council are not endangered by imprudence or neglect. The important trust committed to your care will call for your best exertions, and the exercise of your best faculties. As the representative of Solomon, king of Israel, it will be your duty to recite the secret traditions, illustrate the moral principles of our Order, cherish the worthy, and hold in due veneration the ancient landmarks.

By a frequent recurrence to the By-Laws of your Council, and the general regulations of the fraternity, together with a constant study of the legends and symbols of the Order, as explained in the history and lectures of the several degrees, you will be enabled to fulfill the important obligations resting upon you, with honor to yourself and advantage to the Craft. And may He, without whose approbation all our labors are in vain, give wisdom to your counsels and strength to your exertions. You will now assume your appropriate station.

The remaining officers are then presented in a body by the Marshal and the Installing Officer administers the following obligation:

I (each speaking his name) do solemnly promise that I will faithfully perform all the duties of the office to which I have been chosen to the best of my ability.

Each officer, as soon as he is installed, will assume his appropriate station in the Council.

CHARGE TO DEPUTY MASTER.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION: You have been elected to the second office in this Council, and you are now invested with the appropriate badge of your office.

The duties of the important office to which your companions have elevated you will require your constant and earnest attention. You are to occupy the second seat in the Council; and it will be your duty to aid and support your Chief in all the requirements of his office. In his absence you are to preside and perform his duties.

Although the representative of a king, and therefore elevated in rank above your companions, you should never forget that in all the duties which you owe to God, your neighbor and yourself, you and they stand upon the same level of equality. Let the bright example of your illustrious predecessor in the Grand Council at Jerusalem stimulate you to the faithful performance of every duty; and when the King of kings shall summon you into his immediate presence, from his hand may you receive a crown of glory which shall never fade.

CHARGE TO THE PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR OF THE WORK.

ILLUSTRIOUS COMPANION. As the third officer of this Council, you are invested with the appropriate badge of your office.

It is your duty to sound the silver trumpet at early dawn and eve of day, when the sun's first and last rays gild the mountain tops, to announce high twelve, and proclaim the time of labor and of rest.

In the absence of both your superior officers you will be called upon to preside; and as the interests of the Council should never be permitted to suffer through a want of intelligence in its officers, you will allow me to urge upon you the necessity of being always prepared and qualified to meet such an emergency.

Having being admitted to the fellowship of kings, you will be appropriately reminded that the office of Mediator is one of great responsibility as well as honor. Let it therefore be your constant care to preserve harmony and unanimity of sentiment among the members of your Council. Discountenance whatever may tend to create division and dissension among the Companions; and as the glorious sun, when at its meridian height, dispels the mists and clouds that obscure the horizon, so may your exertions tend to dissipate the mists of jealousy and discord, should they ever unfortunately arise in your Council.

CHARGE TO THE TREASURER.

COMPANION: You have been elected Treasurer of this Council, and I with pleasure invest you with the badge of your office. Your interest in this Council, your attachment to the Craft, and your known integrity of character, are a sufficient guaranty that the duties of your office will be faithfully performed.

CHARGE TO THE RECORDER.

COMPANION: You have been elected Recorder of this Council, and I with pleasure invest you with the badge of your office. The possession of the requisite qualities has designated you as a suitable Companion for this office; and I do not doubt that you will discharge its duties with fidelity and diligence. And when you shall have completed the record of your transactions here below, and finished the term of your probation, may you be admitted into the Grand Council above, and find your name recorded in the book of life eternal.

CHARGE TO THE CAPTAIN OF THE GUARD.

COMPANION: Having been chosen Captain of the Guard, I present you with the badge and appropriate implement of your office. Guard well your post, and suffer none to pass it but the select, the worthy and the faithful. Be ever attentive to the commands of your Chief, and prompt to see them duly executed.

CHARGE TO THE CONDUCTOR OF THE COUNCIL.

COMPANION: You have been chosen Conductor of the Council, and I invest you with the badge of your office. Be fervent and zealous in the discharge of your duties; let justice and mercy mark your conduct, and predominate in your character through life.

CHARGE TO THE STEWARD.

COMPANION: You have been chosen Steward of this Council, and I invest you with the badge of your office. In the discharge of your duties, your station is near the door, where you will receive all reports from the Sentinel, and announce the name and Masonic rank of all who desire admission. You will see that none enter except such as are duly qualified.

CHARGE TO THE SENTINEL.

COMPANION: You are appointed Sentinel of this Council, and are invested with the badge and this implement of your office. As the sword is placed in the hands of the Sentinel to enable him to guard the sanctuary and entrance to the secret passage with sleepless vigilance against intruders, so it should morally serve as a constant admonition to us to set a guard at the entrance to our thoughts, to place a watch at the door of our lips, to post a sentinel at the avenue of our actions; thereby excluding every unworthy thought, word and deed; and enabling us to preserve consciences void of offense towards God and man.

CHARGE TO THE MEMBERS OF THE COUNCIL.

COMPANIONS: From the nature of the constitution of every society, some must rule and others obey. And while justice and moderation are required of the officers in the discharge of their official duties, subordination and respect for their rulers are equally demanded of the members. The relation is reciprocal. The interests of both are inseparable; and without mutual co-operation, the labors of neither can succeed. A house divided against itself cannot stand. Let, therefore, brotherly love prevail among you; let each be emulous of the others in all good works, in promoting peace and unity, and in striving to see who can best rule and best obey. Let the avenues to your passions be strictly guarded; let no curious intruder find his way into the secret recesses of your retirement, to disturb the harmony which should ever prevail among the select and chosen.

The Marshal will then make the following proclamation:—

In the name of the most Illustrious Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of the State of Missouri, I hereby proclaim the officers of ——— Council, No. ——— to be duly installed.

This concludes the Ceremony of Installation of the Officers of a Chartered Council.
